

Please uphold the State of Indiana legislation which prevents businesses from invading the privacy of citizens via their telephone. The constant invasion via advertisements submitted by every other means is must be more than sufficient for a business to get their message out to the public.